Everyone wants to be loved and accepted, but in this world we are all open to be rejected and in one way or another we have all experience rejection to some degree. when we allow the affects of rejection to take hold in our lives the fruit of rejection for us and others is not good.

Rejection was common to the believers in the Bible.

Noah was rejected.

Joseph was rejected by his brothers.

Moses was rejected by his followers.

David was rejected by both his brothers and King Saul.

Elijah, Elisha, and Jeremiah were rejected by the kings and leaders of their time.

The disciples were rejected by the religious establishment.

Jesus Christ was rejected by his family, his home town, religious leaders, political leaders, and he is still rejected today.

Jesus Christ has set the prisoners free and the way we overcome rejection is knowing who we are in Christ and that Identification now is in Christ.

Luke 4:18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

Acts 10:38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.
